Commissioner of the Revenue Brings DMV to Dinwiddie County

On Monday, August 20, 2012 from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Dinwiddie residents will be able to conduct DMV business in the parking lot of the Pamplin Administration Building at 14016 Boydton Plank Rd., Dinwiddie, VA.

The “DMV 2 Go” mobile office will be on-site and, with the latest wireless technology, able to offer all DMV services. Customers will be able to apply for or renew identification cards and driver’s licenses, get a copy of their driving record, obtain vehicle titles, license plates, decals and much more!

Commissioner of the Revenue, Lori Stevens, stated “Our office is committed to making services accessible and convenient for all taxpayers in Dinwiddie County. We’ve worked hard and are excited to bring DMV 2 Go to the County and hope that citizens will take advantage of the opportunity.”

If the August 20th event is well-received by Dinwiddie taxpayers, there may be additional DMV 2 Go dates scheduled in the County.
