Dawn Titmus Named Interim Chief of Fire & EMS

DINWIDDIE, VA – County Administrator, W. Kevin Massengill has named Dawn Titmus, Interim Chief of Fire & EMS following the retirement of Chief Dennis E. Hale.

Interim Chief Titmus has served the citizens of Dinwiddie County through Dinwiddie Fire & EMS for nearly thirty years. She became EMS Manager in 2014, Captain in 2019, and has served as Assistant Chief of Fire & EMS since 2021.

W. Kevin Massengill, County Administrator shared, “The citizens of Dinwiddie County are fortunate to be served by such an experienced and knowledgeable Interim Chief. Dawn Titmus is an excellent leader, and I am confident she will provide the management needed during this transition period.”

Regarding her appointment, Interim Chief Titmus stated, “I am honored to be afforded the opportunity to serve as the Department’s Interim Chief. We are in the midst of growth and continued development, and I look forward to helping ensure a smooth transition to new leadership. In the meantime, we will move forward with business as usual, striving for excellence in all provided services.”

Interim Chief Titmus will assume her new role at close of business, on Thursday, May 23, 2024. Recruitment is underway for a permanent Chief of Fire & EMS. Additional information can be found at www.Dinwiddieva.us/jobs.
