Dinwiddie County, Virginia was formed in 1752 from Prince George County, Virginia. All of the early Courthouse records were lost during the Civil War. Dr. Robert Walker's Account Book was copied at the Virginia Historical Society. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Low Weaver's abstracts of old letters and her line were given me to use in this publication.

The marriages were copies from microfilm rolls of the Deed Books 1 through 6.

The Personal Property Tax List, 1782-1820, were made from microfilm reels J. R. 3511, J. R. 3512 and J. R. 3513. The overseers where marked have been omitted.

The microfilm reel of the Surveyor's Platt Book, 1755-1865 was used for a section of this book.

THE HUTCHINGS LINE:

Robert Hutchings and Mary, his wife, came from England with their two small daughters, Mary (never married) and Sophia (married Summer Woodward and was living in Wilson Co., Tennessee, on December 15, 1813, when she signed Power of Attorney to her brother, William Hutchings of Dinwiddie Co., Virginia, to act for her in the settlement of their father, Robert Hutchings' Estate. MARY HUTCHINGS died on the voyage to the New World. The second wife was Rachel Carter whom he married in Williamsburg, Virginia. Sometime after marriage, Robert and Rachel Hutchings moved from Williamsburg, Va., to Petersburg, Va. Issue by second marriage: Charles, Boswell, William, Betsy, Amelia, and probably others. Robert Hutchings was buried about 15 miles from Petersburg, Va., on Cox Road and his widow, Rachel Hutchings, was buried on the HOME PLACE, about three miles from Dinwiddie Court House.

Charles Hutchings fought in the Revolution, married and had two sons; Robert and Edward. After Charles Hutchings' death, his widow remarried and moved to Georgia.

Boswell Hutchings lived and died in Dinwiddie Co., Va. He married and had four sons and two daughters, who lived to maturity.

William Hutchings (Mrs. Weaver's line) was born October 6, 1770, in Dinwiddie Co., Va., and died May 11, 1840, in Wilson Co., Tennessee. Before moving to Tennessee, William Hutchings married Sarah Thweatt, born June 17, 1768, Dinwiddie Co., Va., and died May 17, 1850, Wilson Co., Tennessee.

Betsy Hutchings married Joshua Abernathy and lived in North Carolina. They had issue of six children.

Amelia Hutchings married a Methodist Preacher named Frank Smith.

Abstracts of some old letters made my Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Low Weaver. On November 5, 1815, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote brother William Hutchings, Wilson Co., Tennessee as follows: Mr. Wingo and Polly were well. Joseph Thweatt, Charles Thweatt, James Sturdivant, John M. Southerland, David Thacker, John Sydnor and their families were all well. Deaths - Old Mr. Whitehead, Dennis Stell, Sally Lanier, who died of consumption, and Old Mr. John Fraser. You said that you had a very dry time last summer and that crops were sorry in Tennessee. You may be thankful that you have as good a crop as you have. If you were in Virginia and could see the prospects here, your heart would sink within you. New corn is selling for $5.00 per barrell. Mr. Southerland heard that you had lost a good deal of your tobacco by fire. I wish you had written me word of what you had lost.

On March 13, 1816, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, Lebanon Post Office, Wilson Co., Tennessee, as follows:

Marriages, Mr. Kirks to Betsy Wells; Mr. Thacker of Chesterfield to Sallie Williams, daughter of Captain Clement Williams; John Moore (preacher) to Nancy Browder. It is reported that Miss Pamela Andrews is to be married to Mr. William Andrews in April.

On February 10, 1818, John Hutchings, Harmon Castle, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his Uncle, William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Rutherford Co., Tennessee. He said that Sally Sturdivant married Edward Thrower, Pamela Andrews married William Andrews, Sally Stell, daughter of Captain C. Stell, married David Roper, and William Walter married Miss Challenger. Also, mentioned that Major John Harnlan's wife departed this life a few days ago and that Colonel Peterson Goodwyn is not expected to live. Prices of the market -- Wheat $2.25; Corn $5.00; Cotton 33 1/2¢.

On March 24, 1816, Rhoda Thacker, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote her Uncle, William Hutchings, Lebanon Post Office, Wilson Co., Tennessee, as follows: The greatest desire I have in this world is to live in that way that I would wish to die, and if we never meet in this world again, I pray GOD that we may meet in Heaven. Her husband, David Thacker, also writes in the same letter: Deaths, Old William Lewis, planter; Old Sam Sandifer; James Williams, son of Charles; Mrs. Sally Parham, Frances Scott; Denny Ledbetter; Lewis Jones; Joseph Boisseau; William Barratt; Mrs. Jackson, wife of Thompson Jackson; Mrs. Williams and twins, wife of Herbert Williams; Martha Meredith, daughter of Eliza Meredith; Luckey Traylor, daughter of John Traylor; Mrs. Hobs and child, wife of Harrison Hobs; Judah Goodwyn; Cy John Scott; Mrs. Smith, wife of John Smith; Mr. Childs of the Poor House; Old Captain Edward Pegram; Caleb Pritchett and his wife. Marriages: Uncle Ledbetter Browder to Elizabeth Anders; John Traylor to Bob Pool's daughter; Roger Mallory to Betsy Boisseau; Matthew Dyer to Miss Watkins, daughter of James Watkins; Dr. William Turner to Mary Challenger; James Kid to Rebecca Young; Eliot Young to Martha Kid; Samuel Hicks to Elizabeth Wells; Edward Thacker to Salley Williams, daughter of Clement Williams; Edward H. Pegram to the widow of John Dabney; John Coleman to Martha Caudle.

On November 11, 1816, John M. Sutherland, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote Captain Hutchings, as follows: Deaths: Dennis Stell and Mr. Miller. Market Prices: Corn has sold as high as $7.50 per barrell, wheat sells at 10/6 per bushel, pork at $12.00 per hundred.

On November 12, 1816, Fendall T. Sutherland, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his Uncle, Captain William Hutchings, of Wilson Co., Tennessee, as follows: Marriages: Nancy Browder to John Moore, the preacher. Market Prices: Corn $5.00 to $5.50, Wheat $10 to $11, Oats 39, tobacco at $14.00.

On June 10, 1817, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Rutherford Co., Tennessee as follows: This is my birthday, 58 years old. Your letter of the 12th of May I received the 3rd of this present month. Market Prices: Corn from $9 to $10, bacon by the load $14 to $15 per hundred, Irish potatoes 75¢ per bushel, confield peas sold at $6 a bushel. Your youthful companions, George and William Thweatt are at school at the Five Forks with a Mr. Eckles; R. Thacker and Archer Thweatt are not in school this year. Thomas Wilborn was married to Sally Wells, daughter of Alexander Wells. Jim's wife to one of the old Edmund Williams men.

On June 6, 1818, Boswell Hutchings wrote from Petersburg, Va., to his borther, William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Deaths: Joseph Thweatt; our sister; Abernathy, wife of Charles Abernathy; Mrs. David Browder. Robert Abernathy is married. Market Prices: Tobacco from $10 to $14 per hundred, Corn $5 per bushel, Wheat is $1.50 per bushel, Cotton scarce at 33¢ per pound.

On September 18, 1818, Boswell Hutchings, Petersburg, Va., wrote to his borhter, William Hutchings, Lebanon, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: Joseph Thweatt left his Estate, the land, to his wife during her life or widowhood and $200. At her death or marriage the land goes to Allen; and to his four daughters he gives $500 each. The balance of his Estate is to be divided equally amongst his children. The widow was dissatisfied and the children have made some arrangement with her to prevent her taking her thirds, but I don't know what.

On November 30, 1818, John M. Sutherland, Dinwiddie, Co., Va., wrote to Capt. William Hutchings, Lebanon, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: George Browder died a few days ago. When Mr. Joseph Thweatt died he left Allen his plantation and his daughters he left five hundred dollars apiece. The rest of his estate to be sold on a credit of 12 months and the money arising from the sale to be equally divided among all of his children. Mrs. Thweatt has got one feather bed and furniture, one horse and chair, and two hundred dollars, and her own property. She has her life in the land, but gave it up to Allen and is living with him. Market Prices: Pork for $10 per hundred, Tobacco for $10 to $14 a hundred, Wheat 10/6 per bushel, and Corn from $3 to $4 a barrel.

On December 26, 1818, from David Thacker, Dinwiddie Co., Va., to Capt. William Hutchings, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: Deaths: John Verell, drank himself to death; William Meredith, Sr., drank himself to death; Major David Williams died the first of February. Marriages: Allen Thweatt and Nancy Sutherland the first day of December last. There was also a letter enclosed from Rhoda Thweatt Thacker to her Aunt. My father, Joseph Thweatt, died on 15th May 1818. He appeared to suffer more than I ever saw a person in my life. He thought that he was poisoned. Dear Aunt, you wanted to know how it was with father and Uncle Hutchings. With sorrow I must write they remain to live as you left them. Sister Betsey has had a son and a daughter since you left, and Eliza has had a son. Ephraim continues to preach and I hope it is in the way to Heaven. Our mother-in-law was baptized in your Old Mill Pond last October by Shelburn, the Baptist Preacher.

On May 23, 1819, Boswell Hutchings, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: Report of Allen Stokes hanging himself and writing a prayer a few minutes before his death. "O GOD, preserve my dear and affectionate wife, preserve her through all vicissitudes of life and at last receive and preserve her through the endless ages of eternity. Forgive thy poor servant for all his past and present sins and be pleased to receive him in mercy through the merits of an atoning Saviour." A. Stokes. 27th April 1819.

On October 24, 1819, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Deaths: Thomas Boisseau; Thomas Wilbourn; Mrs. John Claiborn; Mrs. Anne Meredith; and Mrs. Peterson Goodwyn.

On January 30, 1820, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Tell Mr. Russell Dance that his old father-in-law, Mr. William Hyde, was married to his mother-in-law, Mrs. Boisseau, on the 22nd instance.

On August 24, 1820, Boswell Hutchings, Petersburg, Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, as follows: Duel between R. C. Adams and James B. Boisseau, son of Benjamin Boisseau; both were killed. (Note by TPHjr - this duel was fought in Old Blandford Cemetery over an insult to Miss Ellen Stimpson Peniston at a party being given in her honor on Old Street upon her return from a Finishing School in Baltimore, Maryland. Petersburg Hustling Court, Va., has the Marriage Bond dated November 26, 1821 of Ira E. (llis) Smith and Miss Ellen S. (Stimpson) Peniston, returned December 26, 1821 by Andrew Syme PEC. This couple were my great great grandparents. There are many old letters possessed by their descendants referring to this duel and they all state that she would never give the reason for it). At a camp meeting at Ford Meeting House all four of John M. Sutherland's daughters were converted. They were Sally, Patsy, Polly and Nancy. Also, Cousin Patty Leach was converted. Francis Smith is Superintendent of the Poor House in Lundenburg Co., Va., for which he has $300 a year. George Leach is living near Hamilton Williamson. David Smith is doing well. Market Prices: Tobacco is selling for $5 to $10 in Petersburg and Corn at $2.50 per bushel. Letter address to Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

On September 1, 1822, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Market Prices: Corn being engaged at $5 per barrel to be delivered after Christmas. Marriages: George Thweatt to Miss Areadne, daughter of Mrs. Nancy Manlove. Peterson Goodwyn to Miss Powell, daughter of Edward Powell, formerly of Petersburg. Robert Hutchings will go to Kentucky in November as all of his wife's people are there.

On February 23, 1823, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Robert Hutchings reached Greenburg, Kentucky, on December 11, 1822, and is living 6 miles from this place. Deaths: Mrs. Williams, consort of Mr. Robert Williams; Spencer Gunn; and old Mr. William Lanier. Market Prices: Corn is $3.50 to $4.00, Pork is $6 to $7. Merchants are failing fast, four or five in the course of a month.

On August 12, 1825, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote to his brother William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Received a letter from James Sturdivant saying William Thweatt was still alive and telling of the death of Joshua Coleman. Also of death of Rebecca Thweat. News: Charles Thweatt's, James Sturdivant's, and Mrs. Sutherland's families are all well. Deaths: Henry Thweatt; Joseph Smith; Kennon Jones and Peter Pride all died within 15 days. Marriages: Mr. George Stell married Miss Morgain of Amelia Co., daughter of Simon Morgain on the 27th of last June. George Stell and Miss Butler, daughter of Tilmon Butler married last week. Colonel Robert Pegram has become a preacher of the Gospel. Dr. John C. Pegram has also become a Christian. Polly Roper, daughter of Joel Roper died. Tell Benjamin Moore that Mr. Charles Roper's family seem well. Wheat was 90¢, Corn $2.50 per barrel, Tobacco $4.00.

On September 22, 1825, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother William Hutchings, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: George T. Hutchings started the 10th instant again for Philadelphia. Martha Thacker, who married last year, has a son a week old. I had forgotten to tell you I had received a letter from our nephew Robert Hutchings of Georgia accompanied with a fine silver mounted cane which he said was an emblem of his politics (Andrew Jackson sometimes called Old Hickory) he is a member of the Legislature of Georgia, and I am told he is rich. We have had a very bad year for wheat. It will not bring 15¢ a bushel, cotton has sold for 15¢ per pound.

On May 6, 1826, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote to his brother William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Deaths: John M. Southerland; John Moody's wife; Kirby Moody's wife; and Old Mr. Phillip's wife. Moving: Anthony Sydnor started to Kentucky on the 26th of last month. Mr. Timmons started yesterday on a visit to Georgia to his brother who is living in that country. He may get him a wife before he returns as he has been in a marrying mood for sometime back. Charles Thweatt and James Sturdivant's families are all well. Betsy Southerland is indisposed since the loss of her husband. Market Prices: Corn $2 a barrel, Wheat 62 1/2¢ per bushel, Oats were selling last week in Petersburg for 25¢ per bushel, Tobacco from $1 to $10, Bacon 8¢.

On April 9, 1827, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., to his brother William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., as follows: Deaths: Charles Thweatt on March 26, 1827; he died of a lingering cough. George Thweatt has gone to Georgia. Your wife's nephew married Miss Betsy Lanier, his name, Daniel Sturdivant. George Hutchings has completed his Medical Studies. Francis Smith has left his wife and taken up with another woman and gone off with her; he has been gone about a year and hasn't been heard from since. Our sister, his wife, is doing very well. She and her youngest daughter are living on a place of Mr. Cragheads'. He is a very kind man to her and his wife admires her. He is a very wealthy gentleman and has no children. Market Prices: Corn sold from stack for $4.50 12 month's credit, Wheat is 85 to 90¢, Ground leaves tobacco for $3, $4, $5 and some as high as $8. Most of the people here are for Jackson as our next President.

July 18, 1828, Boswell Butchings, Cloverville, Va., to William Hutchings, Murfreesboro, Tenn., I have received a letter from Polly Wingo. She is living in Washington Co., Belview settlement, Missouri. She and Charles have rented a plantation. The western fever is raging here very much. Capt. William Goode, Richard Thacker, and Dr. John C. Pegram are going. Goode and Thacker will either go to Ky. or Missouri. (Note by TPHjr. Richard Thacker moved to Montgomery Co., Tenn.) Dr. Pegram is going to Ky. on the Ohio River. Hutchings Abernathy has got married to a Miss Stone of Brunswick Co., Va.

On May 1, 1830, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote to his brother, William Hutchings, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: You said that times were hard in Tennessee and so they are here. You mentioned the price of all your produce and among the rest whiskey, which it appears you are engaged in making. It is a pity that whiskey or any other spirits liquor had been made for is had killed more people than all the Wars of Europe. Deaths: Mr. Thacker died since Christmas and last October his daughter Patsey died. This Spring his daughter Rhoda died. Richard Thacker is moving to the Western country. Betsy Thweatt and Archer are at the old place. Allen Thweatt bought Old Henry Thweatts Old Place. Mr. Timmons is living on a small piece of land near where he formerly lived, he has lost his daughter Susan. Deaths: Mr. Wood Reams; John Leach; David Williams, son of old Edmond; David Boisseau; Mr. Thomas Pentecost; Thomas Scott; Old Major Baker Pegram; Doctor Walker; and Captain Williamson Coleman. George T. Hutchings is living with Boswell Hutchings and is practicing medicine. Sister Pamela and her children are well, they are living near David Smith and on his land. Robert and Edward Hutchings and their families are all well; between the two brothers there are 22 children.

On October 24, 1830, Archibald H. Thweatt, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote to his uncle, Captain William Hutchings, Cane's Fork, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: Captain William Scott's widow died a few days ago. Also, Edward Young's wife.

On November 24, 1830, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote his brother, William Hutchings, Cainsfork, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: William Hutchings wrote him about the ill health of his wife and daughters, Nancy and Betsy. Boswell says to tell Mr. Moore that Grandmother Roper is in tolerable health as are all of her family. She was very sick last summer. Boswell lost his daughter, Mary Wingo on 8 August 1830, of bilious fever. She left 6 children. She lived in Missouri. Death of Old Mr. Hatter Lewis. Captain William Sydnor, son of John Sydnor and Dr. Henry K. Jones and George Johnson have gone to Tennessee and to Nashville. Charles and Polly have bought a piece of land near Fredericktown. James Sturdivant and family are all well but none of the girls have married. Charles Thweatt's widow and son Archibald are at the old place. Mrs. Betsy Southerland, and her daughter Mary G., and her son John M. Southerland are living together on Cox Road. Allen Thweatt is living at his father's old place and drinks hard as do many others. Cousin, Rhoda Thacker is living where Jones Browder formerly lived. She has two fine sons. Market Prices: Corn for $2.50, Wheat from 95¢ to $1, Tobacco has no price but may go $2 to $7.

On November 2, 1832, John Hutchings, Oak Grove, Christian Co., Kentucky, wrote his Uncle, William Hutchings, Gainsville, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: he recently had a letter from Virginia telling of several deaths, Dr. Rone; Robert G. Sturdivant; Mrs. Ann Dugger. Also a letter from his father telling him of the death of his brother, George T. Hutchings of Scarlet Fever on 11th day of October last.

On July 14, 1834, Boswell Hutchings, Cloverville, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote to his brother, William Hutchings, Gainsville, Wilson Co., Tenn., as follows: It involves me to inform you of the death of our Sister Smith, she died on the 29th of last month with a bilious dysentery. She was sick nearly four weeks. I am again left alone and am less able to undergo what I have to do than when I lost my wife. Our sister bore her last illness with Christian fortitude and died without a struggle. Mrs. Thacker is also dead, she died some time the 1st of June.

On March 3, 1837, L. M. Southerland, Fork Inn, Dinwiddie Co., Va., wrote R. R. Moore of Sandy Ridge, Tenn., as follows: Mrs. Charles Roper is dead. Cousin Joe is in good health and bought the land the old lady lived on. Uncle Boswell is very low. Mrs. Roper died about the first of last February.
