Brewster for leave to erect a dam across Butternut Creek on the tract of land purchased by him from the Special Commission and the heirs of Daniel Waddell, and as a Daniel Waddell, the said order, erroneously stated as said order "Daniel Waddell's estate in Daniel Waddell's widow's" have not yet acted under said order, said order is hereby altered and amended so as to fix, and the Court doth fix by for Wednesday the second day of January A.D. 1889, as the time for the meeting of said Commission appointed by said order, who are Esquire J. Noble, J. P. Crook, N. W. Starnes, Esq., and J. R. Hardy.

The Court doth allow W. E. Drake, or the owner of R. J. Egan Road, to be represented in Court in his district who is right to make such repairs of his he has repaired the dam.

It being suggested to the Court that the order made at the October 1888 of the Court appointing Dr. Timbille and Bernard Morris trustees in the name and place of Edward R. Timbille, now deceased, under the deed of June third May 10, 1879, therein mentioned, does not make sufficient distinction as to the fact that said order was made upon the motion of the order making the obligation given by said deed it is ordered that said order be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to show that it was made upon the motion of Edward R. Jones in his capacity as the surviving executor of W. R. Dally, and the heirs of said obligation, and not by said Jones in his individual capacity. This order is made by Court of all parties mentioned in said order entered at said October term 1888 of the Court, all of whom appear by Jas. S. Brewster as their Counsel in this behalf.
