This day came as well the attorney prosecuting for the commonwealth as the defendant by the defendant in discharge of his recognizance and his attorney and thereupon came a jury to wit Thomas E. Friend, Henry Thacker, Samuel M Moody, W. H. Thweatt, William Clark, James A Brough, Jacob Andrews, James F. Turner, G. O. Spain, A M Goodwyn, Waverly Coleman, and Benjamin Moody, who being selected by lot tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined upon their oath returned a verdict in these words. "We of the jury find the defendant James P. Wells guilty of the larceny in manner and form as charged in this indictment". Whereupon the defendant James P. Wells by his attorneys moved the court for a new trial on the ground that the verdict is contrary to the evidence - which motion the court overruled. ~~Whereupon the defendant by his attorney excepted to the said opinion of the court, and tendered his bill of exceptions~~ The prisoner by his counsel then moved the court to have the evidence in the case made part of the record by having the same reduced to writing and embodied with his motion the same not having been taken down at the trial except the counsel for the prisoner who tendered his note or a copy thereof to the court - which motion was also overruled by the court. To which opinions of the court overruling his said motions for a new trial and for the reducing the evidence to writing, the prisoner by his counsel excepted and tendered his bill of exceptions which is accordingly signed and sealed by the court and ordered to be made part of the record in this cause. The court being about to pass judgment on the prisoner the prisoner by his counsel then moved the court in arrest of judgment on the grounds of error apparent on the face of the record which motion was overruled by the court and to which opinion of said court overruling said motion the prisoner excepted and tendered his bill of exceptions which was signed sealed &c. Thereupon the court ascertained the term of the prisoners confinement in the county jail to be ninety days, and having pronounced judgment on the prisoner he was remanded to jail there to be confined for the space of ninety days aforesaid.

Pompey a Slave, the property of Patrick Roney of Dinwiddie County, who stands Charged with a felony by him Committed in the County of Dinwiddie and within the jurisdiction of this Court, in this that he did, on the 24th day of July in the year 1859, in the said County feloniously and of his malice aforethought murder one Elisha a free negro, was this day again set to the bar in the custody of the Sheriff of this County, and the Court being divided in their opinion Justices Thomas B. Hamlin, John E. Harris, John J. Sutherland and Robert G. Chichester entertaining the opinion that the Prisoner is guilty of murder in the first degree, and Justice James H. Boisseau entertaining the opinion that the Prisoner is guilty of murder in the second degree, and should be punished by Sale and transportation beyond the limits of the United States in order to render judgment a majority of the Court being of opinion that the Prisoner is guilty of murder in the second degree, it is therefore the judgment of the Court that the Prisoner is guilty of murder in the second degree and it being demanded of the said slave Pompey if any thing he had, or knew to say, why the Court should not now proceed to pronounce judgment on him, and nothing being offered or alleged in arrest or delay of it: It is considered by the Court, that the said slave Pompey be sold and transported beyond the limits of the United States, according to law. And the said slave Pompey is remanded to Jail. And the Court proceeding to value the said slave Pompey as the law directs, each of the Justices present in Court affixed to him such a value as in his opinion the said slave would bring. if sold publicly, under a knowledge of the circumstances of his guilt whereupon John J Sutherland values the said slave at $1000. John E Harris at $1100 R G Cheatham at $1000 James H Boisseau at $1000. Thomas B Hamlin at $1100. from which the legal value of the said slave is ascertained to be $1060.

Alexander, a slave, the property of S. T. B. Rice of Dinwiddie County, who stands charged with a felony by his Committee in the County of Dinwiddie and within the jurisdiction of this Court, in this, that he did on the 8th day of April 1859, in the said County a certain Mill house not adjoining to or occupied with the dwelling house of Godwin Chandler in the night time feloniously did break and enter with intent to commit larceny therein and that he the said Alexander slave the property S. T. B. Rice three hundred and thirty dollars and one keg of sugar the goods and chattels of said Godwin Chandler then being in said Mill house feloniously did steal take and carry away, was this day led to the bar, in custody of the Sheriff of this County, and Richard G. Pegram being assigned by the Court his Counsel; and the said slave Alexander, being thereupon arraigned, pleaded not guilty; and the Court having heard the evidence and arguments of Counsel are of opinion that the prisoner is not guilty of the offence wherewith he stands charged. And thereupon the prisoner was discharged from custody.

It appearing to the Court by the oaths of Goodwyn Chandler & sundry other witnesses, that William W. Hawkins is guilty of a contempt of this Court, in this, that he has this day committed an assault and battery on the person of said Goodwyn Chandler for evidence given in by him this day in the case of the Commonwealth against Alexander a slave prosecuted for felony, It is ordered that that the said Hawkins for the contempt aforesaid be fined fifteen dollars and be confined in the County Jail ten days as a further punishment for said contempt. And the Court doth further order that he the said Wm W Hawkins give security for his good behaviour for the term of one year, towards all the citizens of this Commonwealth, and particularly to the said Goodwyn Chandler. that is to say, himself in the sum of $25 and security in the sum of $25 Thereupon, the said William W. Hawkins with Philip G. Jones and William H. Richardson his securities here in Court severally acknowledged themselves to be indebted To the Commonwealth of Virginia the said William W. Hawkins in the Sum of twenty five dollars and the said Philip G. Jones and the said William H. Richardson in the Sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents each, of their respective goods and Chattels, lands and tenements to be levied hard for the use of the Commonwealth rendered: But upon this Condition, that if the said William W. Hawkins shall keep the peace and be of good behaviour towards all the citizens of this Commonwealth, and especially towards the said Godwyn Chandler for the term of one year as aforesaid, then this recognizance is to be void.

On the motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth, it is ordered that the said William W. Hawkins be recognized, himself in the Sum of twenty five dollars and a security in the like sum, to appear here on the first day of the next May term of this court to answer a bill of indictment to be preferred to the grand jury in and for this County, against him the said Hawkins for an assault and battery on the person of said Godwyn Chandler. Whereupon the said William W. Hawkins and Philip G. Jones here in Open Court severally and respectively acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia in the manner & form following that is to say, the said Wm W. Hawkins in the Sum of Twenty five dollars good and lawful money of the United States and the said Philip G. Jones in the Sum of twenty five dollars lawful money, to be respectively made and levied of their several goods and Chattels, Lands and tenements, to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia, if the said William W. Hawkins shall make default in the performance of the under written Condition The condition of the above recognizance is such, that if the above bound Wm W. Hawkins do and shall personally appear on the 1st day of the next May Term before the County Court of Dinwiddie at the Courthouse Thereof and then and there answer a bill of indictment, to be preferred to the grand jury in & for the said County, against him the said Wm W. Hawkins for an assault & battery upon the person of Godwyn Chandler whereof the said Wm W. Hawkins stands charged, and shall not thence depart without the leave of said Court, then the above recognizance shall be void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue —

Ordered the Court be adjourned until tomorrow morning Nine O'Clock.

This day came the plaintiffs by his attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion, they were solemnly called but came not: and on the motion of the plaintiffs by their attorney it is ordered that this case be continued until the next term.

A writing bearing date the 24th day of April 1856, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Wainwright dec'd was produced in Court, and Edmund W. Branch and C. P. Bevill being duly sworn deposed that the same was acknowledged by the Testator as and for his last Will and Testament in their presence on the day of its date they both being present at the same time, and that they attested the same as subscribing witnesses in his presence and in presence of each other: and that in their opinion the Testator was at the time of sound and disposing mind and memory. That at the time they so attested it, among the names of the slaves bequeathed in the 2nd clause to the Testator's wife and daughter Anny, the name of a slave named John was in the place where the word Cary now appears, and that in the 3rd clause the name of the slave Cary was where the word John now appears. Edmund W. Branch further more testified that about twelve months or two years after said acknowledgment and attestation, he the said Edmund W. Branch, in the presence and at the request of the Testator who was then of sound mind, erased those names, and at his the Testators request and in his presence wrote John where Cary had been and wrote Cary where John had been, and returned the writing to the Testator. Whereupon the Court is of opinion that the said Paper contains the true last Will and Testament of the Testator except that words John and Cary shall be considered as no part thereof, and that with that exception it be received as such. And thereupon on the motion of Ann E. Wainwright executrix therein named who took the oath prescribed by law and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Twenty Thousand Dollars, without Security, conditioned as the law directs, certificate is granted her for obtaining a probat of the said Will in due form.

On motion of the defendants by their attorneys, it is ordered that the judgments obtained in these cases at the last term in the Clerks office be set aside — Whereupon the defendants by their attorneys in each of these cases filed a payment, to which the plaintiffs respectively by their attorneys replied generally. And the Trial of the issue in each of those cases is continued until the next August Term. —

Addison a Slave, the property of William Jarratt of the County of Lafeyette, who stands charged with a Felony by him committed in the County of Dinwiddie and within the Jurisdiction of this Court, in this, that he did on the 24th day of March 1861, in the said County feloniously and maliciously make an assault upon one Andrew J. Blick a white person, and feloniously and maliciously did cut and wound the said Andrew J. Blick and cause him great bodily injury by beating with a stick with intent to maim to disfigure disable and kill the said Andrew J. Blick was this day again set to the bar in custody of the Sheriff of this County, and the Court having heard the evidence, are unanimously of opinion that the said Slave Addison is guilty of the offence wherewith he stands charged. And it being demanded of the said Slave Addison if any thing he had, or knew to say, why the Court should not now proceed to pronounce judgment on him, and nothing being offered or alleged in arrest or delay of judgment, It is considered by the Court that the said Slave Addison be hanged by the neck until he be dead. And It is ordered, that the Sheriff of the County cause execution of this Sentence to be done upon the said Slave Addison, on friday, the 26th day of July next, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and four in the afternoon, at the usual place of execution. And the said Slave is remanded to jail. And the Court proceeding to value the said Slave Addison as the Law directs, each of the Jurors present in Court affixed to him such value as, in his opinion, the said Slave would bring, if Sold publicly, under a knowledge of the circumstances of his guilt. Whereupon B. R. Lewis valued the said Slave at $450, Chs. J. Williamson at $500, Daniel Malone at $500, William Turnbull at $500 and James W. Davis at $450, from which the legal value of the said Slave is ascertained to be $480,

The Court unanimously recommends the prisoner to the mercy of the executive.
