

ABOUT THE PROJECT

In May 2007, the family of the late Robert and Betty Ragsdale graciously donated the old Alleen Clothing factory in McKenney, VA to the Dinwiddie County Parks, Recreation and Tourism Department. The family's wish was to see the building revitalized for the purpose of serving the community.

We are excited to announce that this building, located at 20916 Old School Road, will be the future site of the Robert & Betty Ragsdale Community Center. The community center is scheduled to be completed by Spring 2017.

This center will be designed to host a variety of diverse classes, programs, and events. Along with these activities and other amenities, the center will also house the McKenney branch of the Appomattox Regional Library system and the McKenney location for Virginia Cooperative Extension Services, thus allowing us to provide a myriad of new recreational services for this area of the county.

Thank you for your interest in donating to the Robert and Betty Ragsdale Community Center. Your selfless donation will help enhance the community center's amenities. Naming opportunities are limited and available on a first come-first served basis. For donor markers, the center will feature a prominent wall display in the main foyer and each leaf will be inscribed with the donor name. Different colors of the metallic leaves will be used to demarcate the level of gift being recognized. The tree can grow over time to recognize new donors. Leave a lasting legacy and donate to the Robert and Betty Ragsdale Community Center today!!!
