DINWIDDIE, VA - Dinwiddie County is proud to announce the hiring of Camisha M. Brown as the new Executive Assistant to the County Administrator and Clerk to the Board of Supervisors.

Mrs. Brown attended Virginia State University and was most recently Assistant City Clerk in Hopewell, Virginia. She is a member of the Virginia Municipal Clerks Association, as well as the International Institute of Municipal Clerks.

County Administrator, W. Kevin Massengill stated "I am excited to welcome Mrs. Camisha Brown to Dinwiddie County as our next Clerk to the Board of Supervisors and my Executive Assistant. I believe that Mrs. Brown is uniquely qualified to be our next Clerk and I am confident that she possesses the skills and attributes to excel in her new role. I look forward to working with Mrs. Brown and believe she will be a valuable asset to our team and the community."

Dan Lee, Chairman of the Dinwiddie County Board of Supervisors also stated, "In addition to facilitating public meetings, the Clerk keeps us all informed and on track outside of the Board room. I, and my fellow Board members, look forward to working with Mrs. Brown."
