

Dinwiddie County Board of Supervisors

2017 Black History Month Honoree Mr. Thomas Hooker

Mr. Thomas Hooker was born in Raleigh, NC, to the late, Nathaniel Hooker, Sr. and Della Hooker. Mrs. Hooker recently celebrated her 102nd birthday!

Thomas Hooker is the youngest of seven children (6 boys and 1 girl). He has been married to Delores Davis Hooker for 50 years and they are the proud parents of three children, Carlos (Robin), Kimberli (Torey), and Renee (Tori). They have three grandchildren. Mr. Hooker is a 1958 graduate of Berry O. Kelly High School and a 1962 graduate of Shaw University where he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Health and Physical Education and a minor in Biology.

Mr. Hooker taught Health and Physical Education and coached basketball and baseball at L.P. Jackson High School in Surry County until 1965, when he came to Dinwiddie County. He taught Health and Physical Education and coached basketball and baseball at Southside High School, the only high school in the County during that time for African American Students. When schools integrated in 1970, Mr. Hooker remained in that location, which was renamed, Dinwiddie County Junior High School. In 1972, Mr. Hooker earned his Master's Degree of Education in Supervision and Administration and became assistant principal of the Junior High School.

For 20 years, Thomas Hooker was an educator in Dinwiddie County. During this time he touched the lives and made an impact on countless students, of all races and ethnic backgrounds, and their families.
