IN RE: COMPREHENSIVE UPDATE

Mr. Leonard Ponder, Director of Planning, presented a map with the existing land usage survey which was done by Mr. Birdsong. He showed an overlay on the map of the current zoning in the County and explained that there is not a lot of industrial property that isn't being used. There are also some business uses that exist that haven't been rezoned. But there is a lot of R-1 zoning especially around Dinwiddie. He told the Board the next step that needed to be developed is an overlay for McKenney and then all the overlays will need to be put together. Mr. Ponder stated that the future zoning map work could be ready to review in approximately two months.
